COACHING BIO: Dan Davis

Treasurer

Career: Financial services executive specializing in strategic transformational change management leadership

Hobbies: Reading, travel, enduring Jacksonville Jaguars and FSU Seminoles football, improv comedy

Throughout his adult life, Dan has made his faith journey a priority, serving his local church and local community. Dan has co-founded and led several adult Sunday School classes, comprising over 20 years of teaching and facilitating. He enjoys shepherding others in their faith walk and finds that the interactive nature of small group discussions often leads to breakthrough discernment.

Dan served one of Florida's largest United Methodist Churches as Lay Leader, Chair of SPRC, and as a member of multiple committees including Finance and Trustees. During his term as lay leader of Mandarin UMC, the Church significantly expanded its ministry offerings for young families in the Church and in the community. Dan also proactively led educational sessions leading up to the pivotal special session of General Conference, ensuring that church members were informed of the key topics considered in February 2019.

Passionate about children and youth, Dan has poured his energies into guiding and mentoring. He has coached many seasons of youth soccer, basketball, and his own favorite sport of baseball, earning recognition as Coach of the Year. Dan's commitment to discipling teenagers has included serving as a small group counselor for the One10 Youth group at MUMC, as well as participation on several youth service trips. As a supporter of the All Pro Dad mentoring initiative, Dan successfully founded two school-based chapters, leading these chapters through his own children's school years and ensuring the viability of each chapter by identifying and transferring the captain role to the next generation.

Dan comes to the role of treasurer for the Wesley Brotherhood with a demonstrated understanding of financial management, having previously served as Treasurer of the local United Methodist Men's group as well as the overseer of the youth group funds management system. Professionally, Dan has been in the financial services industry for over 25 years in a variety of management and executive roles.
